"CAST YOUR VOTE"—Never be afraid to stand with the minority when the minority is right, for the minority which is right will one day be the majority. — William Jennings Bryan

RUEDIGER ELEMENTARY SCHOOL K-KIDS AND YOLANDA BARNES, TEACHER-ADVISOR

Larry and Judy Chambers visited the K-Kids at Ruediger Elementary School on Friday 24 October. This was a very impressive and encouraging experience—watching these twelve 4th and 5th graders organize, participate, and express themselves in preparing for service to their school and neighborhood. They were eager, enthusiastic, attentive, very disciplined, and focused on their club and its plans. Yolanda Barnes is an exceptional teacher-advisor. She had a structured meeting agenda, elicited kid's participation in discussing election of officers and potential projects, and she kept their attention throughout. The kids are planning several projects including campus cleanup, reading for younger kids in school, and making things for and visiting a nearby elder care center. They are currently leading a project in the school to raise funds for the school through a "Penny Harvest." Pennies are collected by 4th/5th grade classes from family, friends, and neighbors, sacked, weighed, and will be turned in for school grant money—25 sacks=$1,000. The collection ends 21 November and the kids will decide where to donate the money in January. Some class collections are already significant—one weighs 87 pounds. The K-Kids are also provided ushers for an Awards Ceremony at Godby on 30 October. CCKC should be very proud of these K-Kids and do all we can to support them as the represent the future of Kiwanis.

THE CCKC PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Harry Micheals was the second President of the Capital City Club in 1961. Harry was an active community leader in many organizations who passed away several years ago. He was followed in 1962 by Dr. Lee Young of the Florida Department of Education. In their terms, the club assisted in establishing the Prayer Room at the Capitol, began the Southern Scholarship House at FSU, assisted in the distribution of oral Polio Vaccine, and sponsored the Leon Association of Retarded Children, the FSU-Florida freshman football game, a Little League baseball team, summer Youth Employment Services, the Florida High Key Club, and the Candle of Hope School. Quite a list of accomplishments for a new club! By the way, the football game was such a money-maker that FSU took it over after 3 years.

Lee moved to St. Petersburg in the 70s but returned to Tallahassee and was a member of Northside Kiwanis since the location was more convenient for him. Unfortunately, Lee suffers from Alzheimer's and now lives at Dowling Park on the Suwannee River. His wife Judy called to tell me how sorry they were to not be with us, but she did not think Lee could remember his year or his old friends. Lee was a personal friend of mine for many years and he was a warm and outgoing friend to all who knew him. He is missed by all Tallahassee Kiwanians.

KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL, DISTRICT, DIVISION, CCKC LEADERSHIP AND HISTORY

Kiwanis International President Don Canaday noted in his Presidential Message in the Oct 2008 Kiwanis Magazine that "Kiwanis members are known for having a "Kiwanis heart," willing to give of their time, talents, and treasures for the good of others...Take a look at your family, friends, and business associates. Give them a chance to use their Kiwanis hearts through Kiwanis!"

KIWANIS GROWTH. Eddie Lee, District Chair, Growth Coordinator, says that "We must retool our Clubs and our thinking if we are to reach our potential. " This will require "us to develop a culture of growth, which will also require us to change our approach to recruitment and retention. Part of that culture will require us to wear our Kiwanis pin every day and wear Kiwanis brand clothing when appropriate. We need to develop a 60 second elevator recruitment speech..and have excellent weekly programs and an active service calendar." — Florida Kiwanian, October/November 2008, page 9.

NOVEMBER IS KIWANIS FAMILY MONTH

Kiwanis History ...the year was 1942. The last full convention during the war, in Cleveland, Ohio, adopted the theme, "Morale Building for the War Effort." Kiwanis clubs collected scrap rubber and metal, organized blood drives, sponsored victory gardens, entertained troops, and watched over dependents of servicemen overseas. Fred G. McAlister, QC, London, Ontario, a judge, was elected President. He said "(Underprivileged) children are, in many cases, among the greatest casualties of the war, and we can never forget that there will be no tomorrow for them, but only a long and endless night, unless we do our duty by them even in these difficult times." Kiwanis Legacy and Annual Highlights of Kiwanis International
